To Whom it May Concern:

The Assemblies of God recognizes the valuable program the Boy Scouts of America offers to young men across this nation. We believe in the same traditional values that this program encourages.

We are committed to training and encouraging boys and young men in the moral and ethical values that will make them strong men in their communities. Our Royal Ranger program parallels the Boy Scouts of America's program in this regard, and we commend the Boy Scouts of America for their firm stand in these commitments.

I am pleased to express my appreciation for the Boy Scouts of America and the program have to offer.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Trask
General Superintendent
