America's No. 1
Values Program for Youth

A Great Way to Stay Connected With Your Child and His Friends

Today's world is complicated. Extracurricular activities pull parents and children in several different directions. Parents want children to grow up to be self-confident, dependable, and caring.

Scouting achieves these outcomes by combining fun with educational activities and lifelong values. It also helps parents strengthen character, develop good citizenship, instill faith, and enhance both mental and physical fitness in youth.

If you would like more information on becoming involved in Scouting, please contact your local Boy Scouts of America council found below or check our website at

Tiger Cubs

A school-year program for boys who are under the age of 8, have completed kindergarten or are in the first grade, or are age 7. This program with an adult partner stresses simplicity, shared leadership, learning about the community, and family understanding. Each boy/adult team meets for family activities, and then once or twice a month all the teams meet for Tiger Cub group activities.

Cub Scouts

A family- and home-centered program for boys who have completed first grade but not completed third grade, or are age 8 or 9. Cub Scouting’s emphasis is on quality program, where most young boys and families are involved. Boys who have completed third grade but not completed fifth grade or are age 10 but not yet 11½ are called Webelos (We’ll be Loyal Scouts) and participate in more advanced activities that begin to prepare them to become Boy Scouts.

Boy Scouting

A program for boys who have completed the fifth grade and are at least 10 years old, or are age 11, or have earned the Arrow of Light Award and are at least 10 years old, but have not reached age 18. This program is designed to achieve the aims of Scouting through a vigorous outdoor program and peer group leadership with the counsel of an adult leader.
