Religious Relationships Committee
Developing Council Programs

A Presentation for Council Scout Executives and Council Executive Boards
On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

The first thing a Scout pledges is his or her Duty to God.
In May, 2018, the National Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America stated: “… the commitment of the movement to Duty to God is unwavering” and reaffirmed “… its unequivocal commitment to the Declaration of Religious Principle as a fundamental component of the mission of the Boy Scouts of America.”
Declaration of Religious Principle

The BSA maintains that no member can grow into the best kind of citizen without recognizing an obligation to God.... The recognition of God is necessary to the best type of citizenship and is a wholesome precept in the education of the growing members. No matter what the religious faith of the members may be, this fundamental need for good citizenship should be kept before them. The Boy Scouts of America therefore recognizes the religious element in the training of the members, but it is absolutely nonsectarian in the attitude toward that religious training. Its policy is that the home and the organization or group with which the member is connected shall give definite attention to religious life.
A Religious Relationships Committee can help a Council support their Scouts’ Duty to God.
The purpose of a Religious Relationships Committee is to help Scouting expand opportunities for children, youth, adults, and families within the Council to expand their faith and learn about others’ faiths through local religious organizations.
Said another way, the Committee should cooperate with the Council in its effort to fulfill Scouting’s belief “that no member can grow into the best kind of citizen without recognizing an obligation to God.”
How Can a Religious Relationships Committee Help a Council?
A Religious Relationships Committee Can

- Promote Charter Organization relationships with faith-based organizations.

- Help youth and adult members to grow in their faith and to respect others’ religious traditions as part of their Scouting journey.

- Use Universities of Scouting and other training events to increase awareness of the available age-appropriate religious emblems for youth members and recognize youth who receive those religious emblems.
A Religious Relationships Committee Can

- Bring added emphasis to the observance of Scout Sunday, Scout Sabbath, Scout Jumuah, and other Scout religious observances such as hikes to places of worship, faith based retreats and religious emblem workshops.
- Recruit, train and provide Chaplains for Council camps, as well as scheduled religious services for Council and District events.
- Represent the religious diversity of the Council.
Steps to Form a Religious Relationships Committee
Recruit/Assign Key Leadership
Vice President for Relationships
(Member of Executive Board)

Relationships Staff Advisor
(Advisor to Relationships Committee)
Identify and Recruit a Vice President for Relationships
The Person Selected as the Vice President for Relationships should be Someone Who:

• Knows and is active in Scouting

• Is able to connect with multiple local Faith Groups

• Has good leadership skills
Assign a Senior Professional to the role of Relationships Staff Advisor
If the relationship to Chartered Partners is a Council priority, the professional selected should make it a major priority.
Committee membership should represent the religious diversity of the Council.
Where Can Committee Members Be Found

• Incorporate Existing Denominational Relationships Committees
• Invite representatives from all faith based charter partners in Council to join committee
• Recruit from Local Recipients of Adult Religious Awards
• Seek Referrals from Local Faith Group Leadership
• Try to broaden Faith Groups being served by Scouting
• Contact Ministerial Alliances or Community Church Consortiums
